

Discussion Questions

- 1) Casey struggles with her identity and believes her worth is found in what she does or who her family is. Have you ever struggled with this same issue?
- 2) Ida wanted Casey to learn from her past, but not be defined by it. Do you think Casey ever learned Ida's lesson?
- 3) Casey tries to put on a mask to hide her insecurities and keep people at a distance. Do you think that eventually made things more difficult for her?
- 4) The more life got out of control, the more stressed Casey became. Has your life ever felt out of control? What do you do to de-stress?
- 5) Casey eventually realizes that God has her best interest at heart. Have you ever struggled with trust? Either trusting people or God?
- 6) Forgiveness is often very difficult. Do you think Casey and Haley will ever be able to build a relationship?
- 7) Ryan's quiet example of faith makes a big impression on Casey. When have you seen someone's example make a difference in your own life?
- 8) Casey's cat caused some trouble. Do you have any crazy pet stories?
- 9) Casey discovers her love of cooking and enjoys relaxing with sweet tea and a good book. What are some of your favorite dishes and how do you like to unwind?
- 10) Your turn! Where do you think Casey, Haley, Ryan, and Nancy end up after the end of the book?

*Book club bonus! Everyone make a dish to share and be sure to bring the recipe for your group! Send me pictures of your event to Stephenia@StepheniaMcGee.com and you might see your group on my website or in an upcoming newsletter!